pier PATH Touchstone Energy® Cooperatives

"Providing a perfect illustration of how the Energy Department can help consumers, I am pleased to unveil new computer software that will help families "surf the web" all the way to the bank. Our "Home Energy Saver" software will help homeowners and renters identify the best technologies available to save them both energy & money...The Home Energy Saver web site showcases how a click of the mouse can mean dollars in the pocket of American Consumers."

Bill Richardson
Former U.S. Secretary of Energy
Washington, DC
